GLORYUS: Pets, kids to benefit at upcoming events

Lulu's Barkin' BBQ

Almost every hour news on the slowing recession shows another home foreclosure and the stranded pets left at the deserted residence. Starving pets get lucky if they end up at the Dumb Friends League in Denver and have a bowl of food and loving temporary care. With dwindled donations, the Dumb Friends League especially needs your support to feed and care for the increased load. You can help by adopting a pet or by attending Lulu's Barkin' BBQ, Aug. 15. Chris Isaak is slated to perform. For info, call 303-751-5772, ext. 7214 or e-mail lulusbbq@ddfl.org.

Kiss the Bluz Goodbye

The City Park Pavilion is about the prettiest place to be on a summer evening and it's the site for the Dani's Foundation "Kiss the Bluz Goodbye," Aug. 20. This is their Cocktails for A Cause event to raise awareness and funds for the foundation's Campaign to End Pediatric Cancer. On the agenda: cocktail buffet and recording artist Keaton Simons and Jaden Carlson. They'll have a silent auction as well. Info: www.danisfoundation.org or 303-601-1881.

Volunteers needed

The Seeds of Hope Charitable Trust needs volunteer ambassadors, tutors and fundraising event help. Reach them at seedsofhopetrust.org.
