

2017 EXCEPTIONAL STAR OF THE YEAR AWARD

The John Lynch Foundation Exceptional Star of the Year Award, presented by the Anna and John J. Sie Foundation and the John Lynch Foundation, is given out to four exceptional Colorado student-athletes, ages 12 to 28, based on their participation in athletics, academics and in community involvement. *Finalists will be invited to attend John Lynch Salute the Stars awards luncheon at Sports Authority Field where the awards will be presented.

FOUR WINNERS WILL BE CHOSEN AND EACH WILL RECEIVE A $5,000 AWARD

Criteria:

- TWO awards are designed for exceptional student-athletes with Down syndrome
- TWO awards are designed for an exceptional student-athlete with other disabilities
- Based on the individual applicant's ability, the students must show proven success in academics, interest and extraordinary effort in athletics, and a desire to be involved in their community.
- Applicants must be between 12 - 28 years old
- Funds may be used towards a college education, post secondary education program, vocational program, therapeutic training, or any other program that will assist the winner in achieving their dreams. The scholarship selection committee must approve the program to which the recipient chooses to apply the funds.
